

2nd CERIS Workshop on the Economics of Inclusivity and Sustainability

J.E. Cairnes School of Business and Economics

October 10-11, 2024

Location:

The workshop takes place in the BizHub (CA239a), which is upstairs in the School of Business and Economics, directly above the cafeteria. You can find the exact location on the university's interactive map.

We will also have signs posted outside on the days of the workshop.

Logistics:

The workshop will start with coffee at 10.30 and a short introduction at 11.00 on Thursday, October 10th and will run until 18.00, followed by the workshop dinner. Friday will be a shorter day, running from 9.00 and finishing with lunch at 13.30.

Programme:

Presentations last for 30 minutes, including Q&A.

Flashtalks are allocated 10 minutes each, including Q&A. Timekeeping for flashtalks will be judicious so please plan to speak for 7-8 minutes to allow 1-2 questions!

Speakers can either email their slides to Matthew by Wednesday, October 9th, or you can bring your slides on a USB key. If you bring a USB, please ensure you copy your slides to the room PC before your session.

The full programme is available below.

Contact Information:

For any questions, feel free to email. On the day of the event, if you are struggling to find the location or need any assistance, you can give me or John a call.
