

Terms & Conditions

- 1) A scholarship may be awarded to a student entering year one of GY501 Undergraduate Medicine at University of Galway.
- 2) The Scholarship Panel will consider the application form and supporting documentation to determine who will be awarded a scholarship. Evaluation of applications will be on the basis of academic achievement, demonstration of impact on studies; future career potential; and personal and family circumstances. In the case of multiple applications of the same standard, consideration will be given to those applicants who demonstrate greater financial need. The scholarship panel's decision is final. Detailed feedback is not available in the case of an unsuccessful application.
- 3) Students will not be entitled to receive this scholarship in conjunction with any other bursary, scholarship or award of similar description.
- 4) Any offer of a Scholarship is dependent upon information being truthful and accurate and upon the applicant fulfilling all of the conditions of the Scholarship. The right to withdraw an offer is maintained in the event of any error or omission whatsoever in the information provided by or on behalf of the Applicant. The Applicant will be given 14 days' notice in writing that the offer is being withdrawn.
- 5) Scholarships will only be awarded to Applicants who have been formally offered a place on a designated course by University of Galway.
- 6) Each Scholarship is for the named person on the application only.
- 7) The Scholar must commence his or her programme of study during the academic year of 2025/26. The Scholar must successfully complete their programme of study within the standard time-frame. The duration of the Scholarship will be clearly stated upon confirmation of award and will not be extendable to cover any deferred or repeated year. Authorised postponements will be considered only in exceptional circumstances, and for a valid reason. In the event that no reasons are provided, it will remain within the discretion of University of Galway to withdraw the Scholarship.
- 8) The Scholar will be expected to attend a Scholarship Awards Ceremony to be formally presented with the award.
- 9) The Scholar will be expected to take part in the promotion of this scholarship and may be asked for a photograph and personal statement for use in promotional material and impact reporting. The Scholar's contact details (email address, phone number and postal address) will be retained by University of Galway for the purpose of administering the Scholarship only.
- 10) If a scholarship holder withdraws from the programme for which s/he has registered or fails to continue throughout the year to meet the attendance and other requirements for the programme, including examination entry, s/he may be required to repay to the University the whole or part of the bursary in which case the University shall, in consultation with and subject to the agreement of the Donor, determine an alternative application for the refunded funds, consistent with the wishes of the Donor and informed by its original purpose.
- 11) The Scholar will agree to allow the Institution to share certain data (name, course, student ID number, institution, etc.) with other parties within the Institution as required with the scholar's express permission.
- 12) All scholarship recipients must adhere to the University of Galway student Code of Conduct.
- 13) University of Galway, in consultation with the supporter, reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions on notice to the scholars where necessary
